For Immediate Release
Vacaville Artist Celebrates Valentine's Day with Love Song
Broadcast on KUIC Morning Show!

KUIC will broadcast, Robbie Jimenez's single "BE MY VALENTINE" tomorrow (February 14, 2012) on the KUIC morning show with John Young and Don Potter shortly after 6:30 am. Vacaville's own Robbie Jimenez (21), sensational composer and recording artist wrote "BE MY VALENTINE" in 2011. It is currently the most popularly sold single on ITUNES having been released in Robbie's first album "INVINCIBLE" last summer. The acoustic version of Be my Valentine had its debut live by Robbie himself during Open Mic at Young Artists Conservatory of Music, last February. This Valentine's Day song is a sweet and innocent song about the love for a girl whose 3000 miles away. John Young will conduct a phone interview with Robbie Jimenez to precede the broadcast.

Robbie Jimenez, from Vacaville is well known for his music, and passion for composition. This is Robbie's 2nd live interview and music broadcast with the local radio station KUIC! Since his debut concert (Invincible) at the Vacaville Performing Arts Theatre last August, Robbie is now known as one of the most dynamic original performer / artists to come from Vacaville. Currently Robbie lives in Philadelphia where he is earning a degree in composition and working on his production career.

Production Updates

Robbie's Music Video for Be my Valentine is currently in production and will be released in few weeks.

Robbie's single Philadelphia is up next for video production.

Two new singles scheduled for release late this Spring.

Robbie returns home in May to produce his 2012 Summer concert at the VPAT, produced by Young Artists Conservatory of Music, and managed by Wanda Cook.
