

Structured Learning Becomes Formal Training

PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS:

By replacing methods with pedagogic competence, literary expertise, performance readiness, and an emphasis on musicianship.

PEDAGOGIC COMPETENCE

Sequenced approach to developing integrated skills

LITERARY EXPERTISE

Utilize pieces of varied styles and periods to achieve individual learning goals

PERFORMANCE READINESS

Building mastery and confidence for frequent performances

EMPHASIS ON MUSICIANSHIP

Enabling independent musical exploration thru reading & aural skills

EXPERT FACULTY

PERFORMER CREATIVITY

Performing an instrument or voice nurtures confidence, creativity and imagination, helping students discover their innate artistry.

MUSICAL LITERACY

The study of music theory leads to the acquisition of skills that empower students to learn music efficiently and independently.

AURAL SKILLS

Developing critical listening skills contributes to successful self-assessment, and brings a deeper appreciation of music.

PHYSICAL SKILLS

Developing comfort in playing helps students secure a reliable technique, allowing them to flourish as musicians.
